The tragedy of Charlie Hebdo

Support of freedom of the press
of freedom of expression of freedom of thought and of conscience

Freedom of the press is one of the pillars of democracy.

The signatory Belgian masonic Obediences strongly condemn the despicable attack perpetrated against the magazine Charlie Hebdo.

A free society, open to all, cannot be built without guarantee of freedom of expression, thought and conscience for the citizen.

We express our solidarity with all of those who did fight, are fighting and will fight, sometimes risking their lives, for those universal and fundamental values that we hold dear.

All our support goes to the families of the victims.
