

GLFB-VGLB privacy policy

In accordance with the “European protection data rules” GDPR, this section explains the policy of the Women’s Grand Lodge of Belgium- Vrouwengrootloge van België (hereafter named “GLFB-VGLB”) about the processing of personal data. This approach applies to the computerized processing of personal data and to the manual processing alike.

Processing of the personal data of the visitors of the website open to the public

GLFB-VGLB is a nonprofit association and a federation of autonomous Lodges. GLFB-VGLB does not process any personal data of visitors of its website. No use of cookies is made apart from those necessary to the site browsing. Those cookies only hold the IP address of the site GLFB-VGLB and are deleted as soon as the session is logged out. No IP address of visitor is retained nor recorded.

The GLFB-VGLB website is hosted by the OVH company which applies the GDPR rules. This can be checked by consulting the Data confidentiality policy on the company site.

The GLFB-VGLB only processes the personal data from the online contact forms, in order to answer the website visitor’s specific request. The personal data of visitors are never used for commercial purposes and are never handed down to third parties. They are only handed down to the members of GLFB-VGLB in charge of answering the visitor’s requests.

If the sender of the message to GLFB-VGLB refuses essential data to be shared, GLFB-VGLB may not be able to answer his or her question. In this case the data given are deleted.

Any person whose personal data are processed can ask the access, to have the data corrected or deleted by sending a mail to glfb-vglb@outlook.com. If GLFB-VGLB does not follow up the request for access, correction or deletion, the person can lodge a complaint to the authority for the protection of private life: Autorité pour la protection de la vie privée, rue de la Presse, 35 à 1000 Bruxelles, for Belgium.

The personal data obtained via the contact form will be kept for one year.
